

2015 / 2016 Funding Source, Extent & Purpose

In addition to the state and federal government funding we receive, the Centre has received income from the following sources over the past financial year:

| | | |
|---|-------------|--|
| Bank Australia | $3136.51 | Interest received on cash deposits. |
| Department of Justice & Regulation | $12,549.76 | Income generated from provision of service through local prisons. Services provided are typically of a generalist nature. Under agreement with the Department of Justice CHCLC issues invoices on a fee for service basis. |
| Department of Justice & Regulation | $19,150.00 | Income received for provision of services through the Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal |
| Department of Justice & Regulation | $57,391.40 | Family Violence Duty Lawyer Fund to provide services to Ararat & Stawell |
| Department of Justice & Regulation | $31,486.40 | Community Legal Centre Assistance Fund to provide financial counselling to women affected by family violence |
| Federation University Australia | $4,950.00 | Funding provided under agreement with the University for the provision of on campus legal advice for students. |
| Federation University of Australia | $68,619.40 | Grant provided via the Victorian Legal Services Board for Central Highlands Health Justice Partnership, providing legal assistance to young people. |
| Membership & Donations | $971.46 | Membership subscriptions and donations. |
| St Laurence Community Services Inc | $2,159.54 | Funding provided to host Work for the Dole participants. |